the bill now under consideration, and I believe the bull now under consideration, and I believe the ought to pass. I am satisfied that if its merits are duly considered by honorable Senators, it will meet their favorable consideration.

The law now in force, Mr. Speaker, upon this subject, protects the land and slaves of a married woman from the debts or liabilities of her husband, whether contracted before or after marriage. And not only this, but it also protects the rent of her kinds and the hire of her slaves from his debts, and secures it to her separate use. The reason for making this law, as we are told by its advocates, was to protect the wife's properly from the improvident acts of a dissipated and drunken husband. This is all lissipated and drunken husband. This is all joses.

The bill now before the Senate proposes to may be felt by all. Is it not right, and just, and proper to do this? If it is not, then the present law ought to be repealed. A due regard for equal rights requires this. I confess, sir, I have not advanced so far in this age of improvement as to believe that the laws of this commonwealth are to be made for one particular class of persons; that we are to meet here and legislate exclusively for the benefit of the land the whole on the State of the Union, the Senand slave holder, to encourage and favor a discontinuous discontinuo and slave holder, to encourage and favor a distinction in society; that is, war with every principle of equality. Sir, if I may be allowed to digress a little have been in time past, to hear the aspirants for legislative honors, canvassing before the dear people for their suffrage, declaring their great veneration for equal rights. Hence their peals of eloquence from the stump, informing the lear people what high and exalted privileges e secured to them by the laws of the land that e live in, the free and happy, and proud Com nouwealth of Kentucky, where equal rights are ecured to all classes, and exclusive privileges to none; that the poor and the rich are alike secured, in the enjoyment and protection of the laws; that merit alone is that which should claim distinction, &c., &c. After hearing this, one would suppose that when these great admi-rers of equal rights get into this hall to making laws, they would carry out this great principle of equality, and the laws enacted would be cterised by this principle; but, sir, what e find? Why, sir, the landholder and election. laveholder monied monopolies. Enlarging the shape of banks, that grind the poor man to the tune of 12 per cent. upon his hard earnings; these, sir, are the chief things that demand and receive our respectful consideration. Is this right or is it not? I leave Senators to decide. But we are told that the passage of this bill would breed confusion, and would mar the beauty of the present law. Does not the same difficulties present hemselves? and if so, what becomes of their gument? Let us see. Land and negroes can a distinguished, they say. Yes, and so can a orse and cow, or sheep, or mule; but they say he cash, notes, and money of the wife canno be identified or distinguished; no mark can be placed upon this to give it identity. In reply to this, I would enquire how do you, inder the present law, distinguish and identify the cash, notes and money taken and arising from the rent of lands and hire of slaves, coming the wife? By the present law, she is entitled to this rent and hire. It is hers, given into he ands; she can lay it out for what she pleases. he can purchase anything she desires, duck up to a negro; and it is protected from the debts of the husband. And how are these things identified? Oh, but this, they say, is the ds of land and negro hire, and consequently assumes high dignity, and deserves protection. I leave this intelligent Senate to ecide upon the merits of this sort of logic. A w more remarks and I am done Now, Mr. Speaker, I respectfully enquire, I appeal to the intelligence of this honorable Senate, to know if it be right and just to protect he land and slaves of a marrid woman, together with the rent and hire, from the control of an improvident, dissipated and drunken husband, thy is it that a like protection, for like reasons. should not be extended to all classes? to the nore fortunate land and slaveholder? ften is it that the poor but virtuous and unsuspecting female, through oversight, or ignorance or misplaced confidence, joins her fate and con fides her all to a dissipated and drunken husand, who hardly permits the honey moon to pass before her little all is swallowed up at the rog shop or gambling table; and in a short ime she is turned out to shift her way through the world, a poverty-stricken and wretched ou ast? This, sir, is the class that is designed to be protected by the bill under consideration; t. sir, we are gravely told that we should render ourselves rediculous by passing such a bill. I hope, sir, this bill may pass, and I am satisfied it will, if its merits are duly considered.

THE CANADIAN CHIEFTAIN, SNOW-STORM.

THIS beautiful Stallion will stand the present season, which will expire on the 10th of July, at my farm, 8 miles from Frankfort and 3 miles from the Forks of Elkhorn, on the Frankfort and Georgetown turnpike road, at $10 to insure a colt, to be paid when the lact is ascertained, or if the mare is disposed of helore, the breeder to be responsible for the service. I will furnish rich pasturage to mares coming from a distance gratis; or feed them with grain, if required, at a reasonable rate, without becoming liable for accidents or escapes.

BESCRIPTION.

Snow-storm is now, (being nine years old.) a light dapple gray, with long flowing white mane and tall, is full 15 hends high, combining in an eminent degree symmetry and power with speedy and easy paces. I consider him unsurpassed as a saddle horse, going all the gaits and carrying the rider at any with remarkable case and speed. He is also a very superior marness horse, and goes at the late of a mile in 3 minutes, trotting, and but little shower pacing. A cross of such a herse upon the fine large blood mares of the county cannot fall to produce the perfection of the saddle and harness horse, and with fine going pony mares, the best and most useful hackneys.

"Graysville, Ky., October 94, 1853.

I was at Nashville a few days since, and on enquiry. I find the grey horse CANADIAN CHIEF, is in high standing there; said to be the best horse of his stock in the State, and the gentleman who imported him, says he could, when under good training, made his mile in 3 minutes, and he and his match both together in 34 minutes; the latter considered the best, as it is very fast for two together; and Mr. Avery says he paid more for your horse than any horse he imported. He says he drove him in a buzgy 14 hundred miles, and he considers him the very best horse he ever drove.

THE BRITISH QUARTERLIES BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE.

LEONARD SCOTT & CO., Continue to Re-publish the following British Periodicals, &c.

The London Quarterly Review, Conservative. The Edinburgh Review, Whig.

The North British Review, Free Church.

The Westminster Review, Liberal. Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, Tory.

Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, Tory.

The present critical state of European affairs will render these publications annually interesting during the year 1854. They will occupy a middle ground between the hastily written news items, crude speculations, and the flying rumors of the daily Journals and the ponderous Tome of the future historian, written after the living interest and excitement of the great political events of the time shall have passed away. It is to these Periodicals that readers must look for the only really intelligible and reliable history of current events, and as such, in addition to their well-established literary, scientific, and theological character, we urge them upon the consideration of the 'eading public.

Arrangements are in progress for the receipt of early sheets from the British publishers, by which we shall be able to place all our Reprints in the hands of subscribers about as soon as they can be Lamished with the foreign copies. Although this will involve a very large outlay on our part, we shall continue to furnish the Periodicals at the same low rates as heretofore, viz:

For any one of the four Reviews, $3.00 per ann.

DR. URBAN'S

ANTI-BACCHANALIAN ELIXIR,

IT is not in the least injurious to the system. It is pleasant to the taste, and will cure the hardest cases of intemperance. We warrar it, in all cases, if taken according to directions. It destroys the desire for all ardent spirits when strictly taken according to directions. It destroys the desire for all ardent spirits when strictly taken according to directions, and will restore the individual to the same state of sobriety in which he was before he ever drank a drop of the ardent, and he will not have the least desire for intoxicating drinks.

Intemperance is a disease; and as such the greater the excess in drinking the more speedily is the disease as the cases in drinking the more speedily is the disease as the balm of Glead—the oil of consolation, peace and perfect restoration.

The more fully developed is the disease the more salutary and powerful the effects of this Eltxir, at once destroying the appetite for spirits, and restoring the tone of the stomach to as healthy an action as it was before drinking a drop of ardent spirits; and when intemperance has assumed this diseased form, reason is measurably dethroned, the will to a certain extent becomes ungovernable, until often, aisel many have passed the bounds of sober restraint, and though they may desire, in their sober moments, to abandon the use of that which is so rapidly proving their bane, they cannot, unaided, and no aid has ever been tendered such, with success, until the discovery of Dr. Urban's never failing Autibaction of the adder, are placed within every man's reach; those therefore, who hereafter fill the grave of the drunkard must do so by choice, and not of necessity—interest to how near it you may now be.

As the Elixir is a most powerful purifier, of the blood the seat of all diseases, thas been used with great success, and is highly recommended in cases of Delirim tremens. Dyspepsia, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, Liver Complaints, General Debility, Piles, and all kinds of Fevers. It is the best alterative keeping from a Rolling print to do u plaints, General Debility, Piles, and all kinds of Fevers.

It is the best alterative known.

If The Anti Bacchanalian is neatly put up and label, led, with full directions accompanying each bottle.
Price $3 per bottle. On the receipt of the above sum it will be sent, free of charge, to any part of the United States. All letters to be prepaid. To be had from all the principal Druggists in the United States.

A. URBAN, M. D.

65 Third Street, Louisville, Ky.

DR. URBAN'S VEGETABLE FEVER AND AGUE POWDERS:

The only sure remedy ever known for Chills and Fever, and warranted to cure, in all cases, if taken according to directions.

It cures, when taken according to directions, in TWENTY MINUTES, leaving no Fever after the Chill, very seldom requiring more than ONE DOSE to make a PERMANENT CURE. A great number of cases, from two to five years standing, have been CURED with the FIRST DOSE, and the Chill has never, as yet returned. The beauty of this medicine is, that it stops the Chill in TWENTY MINUTES, or less, and the patient will be entirely clear from Fever after the Chill, which is not the case when any other medicine is used. It has superseded all other preparations wherever it has been introduced. Read what the Editors of the Louisville Democrat say from their own observation:

"Dr. Urban's medicine for the cure of chills and fever has effected some wonderful cures in our own midst. A young man who has residued for several years in Louisiana, reached New Albany a few weeks since, weak and emaciated—literally worn out physically, with long continued chills and fever. He made a short stay at the house of Judge Smith, where his old disease continued with no less severity than at home in Louisiana. Having eshausted almost every remedy known to the medical profession, he procured a box of Dr. Urban's celebrated medicine, and after taking two powders was entirely relieved and restored to health He has been well ever since—says his health has not been as good for several years, and is now last regaining his former vigor and the rosy cheeks he was wont to wear.

This medicine can be had at the manufacturers' Depot 65 Third Street, between Main and Market, Louisville, Kentucky, wholesale and retail.

Corner of Broadway and Short Streets, LEXINGTON, KY. J. R. DIDLAKE AND SAMUEL HALLEY,

J. R. DIDLAKE AND SAMUEL HALLEY, PROPRIETORS,

RESPECTFUEEY inform the traveling public that this large and conveniently arranged Hotel, after having undergone a thorough renovation, and been entirely refurnished, is now open for the reception of resident and transient visitors. They are determined to spare neither trouble or expense in making this a first class Hotel and trust that their efforts will be appreciated by a due proportion of the public patronage. As they are desirous that the house shall speak for itself, they deem it unnecessary to make further promise.
